to read the bills in full?

PRESIDENT: The Clerk is under orders to read the bills in their entirety under the constitutional restrictions of the State of Nebraska.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Now, the only reason that I make the motion, and I'm not making any more, bring it up because in my judgment, unless we do as a grave constitutional problem whether what we do is legal or not, that's my only concern. What we've done in the past is not material. What we do from now on is.

PRESIDENT: All right. Now the Chair is also going to mention that under the rules of the Legislature, you all know the rules for Final Reading. The Chair is not going to be in any position again of perhaps allowing a laxity for which other members might criticize, lobbying or any other activities that might go on on the floor. Do you understand the rules and that is you're to be in your chairs on Final Reading. If you care to leave the chamber for personal reasons, etc., it would be appreciated that at least your flag, hold up your hand, let us know up here, we do just keep track of who comes and who goes, you'd be surprised. But I don't really care to keep school or act like a parole officer up here, if you don't mind the expression. Thank you very kindly. Clerk will begin the Final Reading of LB1053.

CLERK: Read LB1053. (Cut off in middle).

PRESIDENT: I'm sorry. What's the problem, Senator Stahmer? Oh, Senator Moylan voting aye? Yeah. Thank you.

CLERK: Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Journal show that Senator Proud is excused because of his mother's death and that his mother's funeral is on April 11th at Arapahoe, Nebraska. Signed, Senator Warner.

PRESIDENT: So ordered. Final reading of LB1053.

CLERK: Attempted to read LB1053. Began reading LB1053.
